

Prospective employee's specification: Veterinary Adviser

Job Title: Veterinary Adviser	Competitive Salary + car + pension
-------------------------------	------------------------------------

Qualifications
Essential	Desirable
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Qualified Vet 2. Driving Licence
Experience / Knowledge
Essential	Desirable
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 2 – 3 years' experience of clinical practice 2. Knowledge of cattle medicine 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Understanding of the commercial side of veterinary practice and sales process 2. Teaching / training 3. Writing technical material for various audiences
Skills
Essential	Desirable
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Excellent written and oral communication skills. Ability to communicate complicated science clearly. 2. Technical and academic ability to understand a subject and be an "expert" in the subject. 3. Ability to give presentations to experts (vets) and farmers. 4. Good team worker 5. Organisational skills 6. Preparation of printed and visual materials 7. Understanding of social media 8. IT Literate 9. Sound judgement 10. Commercial acumen 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Experience of writing reports or articles
Personal attributes
Essential	Desirable
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Creative and inquisitive 2. Analytical 3. Willing to learn 4. Desire to support development of veterinary practice. 5. Ambitious 6. Gives attention to detail

<ol style="list-style-type: none">7. Professional manner and appearance8. Ability to lead a team, be part of a team or to work autonomously9. Problem-solver10. Self-awareness11. Confident12. Ability to see the big picture and contribute strategic thinking to a growing business13. Interested in business14. Willing and interested in travelling. See note below.15. Enjoy teaching and helping people
---	--

Note: the person must be willing to travel to the office in Moreton-in-Marsh on a daily basis. Some home working will be considered once the postholder can cover the full range of the job requirements. The postholder will be required to travel in the UK and overseas for up to 3 days per week but generally this will be between 6 to 9 days per month.

May 2019